How do I purchase an article or book chapter on SpringerLink?

It is possible to purchase single journal articles or book chapters online from SpringerLink. SpringerLink does not offer whole eBooks or electronic reference works.

If you are on a search result page or on an article/chapter abstract page you will see the option to open the article in PDF or HTML. If you are not an authorized user, you will be prompted to purchase the article after clicking on the PDF or HTML icon and link. At this point, you have the option to log into an individual account to verify a subscription or associate your purchase to your SpringerLink account.
